1 MOHAMMED AL-MARRI: We are all eight boys,
2 with Ali, and four sisters.

3 I did my Bachelor of Science in, ah, Texas,
4 and I, ah, graduated in '96, and actually it's 5 the company I used to work for, they send me
6 to -- to get my degree.

7 Now, actually, on this in our, ah, what do
8 you call it; oil and gas? But now I am work for 9 a company called Jacobs, and say it's -- 10 actually it's work in Saudi Arabia and they are 11 the -- actually it's, ah, the project management 12 consultant for (inaudible) project, which is 13 work right now. So we are supplement to Aranka.

1 MOHAMMED AL-MARRI: He was, you know, ah --
2 he's a key person at the bank. Many people,
3 they -- they like him. They all say they like
4 Ali (inaudible) Saleh has helped to -- to them.

5 And to now if you were -- when we see any of 6 these people from, ah -- when we go to the bank,
7 they still, ah -- you know, they keep on asking 8 us, you know, about Ali's situation: Where is 9 he, and; How is he, and; How is -- and so they 10 keep on asking us.

11 You know, so we actually make lots of friends
12 in ban -- in the bank because of Ali's
13 relationship with his friends in the bank.

1 MOHAMMED AL-MARRI: He's nice father, you
2 know, he's a nice father, he's like his, ah --
3 his family. He's take them -- you know, he take 4 care of them for every single small things, you
5 know, he's -- he's a nice person.

6 Working for his family, as far as a family as 7 a whole, you know, he's very good, ah, person in 8 the family.

1 MOHAMMED AL-MARRI: In our religion,
2 actually, is we treated to treat people, you
3 know, ah, nicely, ah, even if -- even if they're 4 not Muslims, even if they are from other
5 religion, we still respect them, we, ah, treat
6 them very well and, ah, many people here -- I
7 have a friends, American friends, you know, they 8 come and work in here, and, ah, we are really 9 good, ah, friends. And even if they have the 10 different religion, that doesn't mean he's have 11 to be -- you know, this is his way of life. You
12 know, this is religion, this is -- but we treat
13 people as really nicely.

1 MOHAMMED AL-MARRI: We go to the mosque
2 where, as my fathers go, and I go and everybody
3 goes. So as, ah, he's -- he's an ordinary 4 person, ah, who's actually practice his 5 religion.

1 MOHAMMED AL-MARRI: You know, we believe in
2 American justice, they're really good justice,
3 there's -- there is a real good justice in 4 American before 9/11 and everybody wish thus go
5 to United States for study, for business, for 6 everything, you know, because we have in our 7 mind that's American that is really have good 8 style of life.

1 MOHAMMED AL-MARRI: Ali is -- is a father of 2 five children and have a wife and a father and 3 mother. You know, his -- his father's been 4 died -- you know, his, ah, willing to see Ali
5 before he died. And, unfortunately, he did
6 never see.

7 Now we have an old mother that's also his 8 wish, to see Ali before she passed away. And we 9 as a family, we need to see our -- to see Ali.
